MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
FROM : SA/DCI/IA
SUBJECT : NSC Meeting on NSSD 1-82, 27 April 1982

1. Another NSC meeting on U.S. national security strategy planning is scheduled for next Tuesday.

25X1 2. [] has provided you the latest copies of Sections D through G of Part III of the Study. He has summarized for you the status of those papers.

3. Included in this group of papers is the section on security assistance, which in general calls for a more serious effort to utilize this tool in our foreign policy efforts. Because of your keen interest in this subject, I have included also a copy of the map showing Soviet presence and influence as well as a copy of the DI's backup notes explaining the rationale for categorization of the various countries. I presume that you will also wish to have in hand the DI's draft on security assistance needs and instability around the world. I have not yet seen that paper, but I believe Bob Gates gave it to you this morning.

25X1 4. [] and I plan to get together with you on Monday to see if there is any additional material you want and to provide Harry an opportunity to talk to you about some of the issues.

5. For your reference, I will return to you your copy of Parts I and II of the Study, which were the basis for last week's NSC meeting.
